WILSON CONVICTED OF AN OLD CRIME.

Was at Liberty 33 Years, but Ill-. Treated His Wife and She Caused His Arrest.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Ava. Mo., April 3.-James Wilson, charged with killing Orville Lyons in 1809, was found guilly to-day of murder in the second den the Penitentiary. Notice of an appeal was Wilson, it was charged, went to Lyon's house in Arno, August 22, 1859, and shot and killed him. Before leaving the Ozark coun-try, it is also charged, he killed another man, whom he mistock for an officer.

aree and his punishment fixed at ten years

Wilson went to Oklahoma, where he was joined by his wife and children. He became a presperous farmer in Logan County, but ill-treated his wife, who procured a divorce.

He martied again and his first wife betraved him to the officers. He was arrested last December. His de-case was that he was not the Wilson

The Jury Was Out Seventeen Hours. Wilson is now 68 years of age. This case has created much interest in Douglas County, and almost the entire population of the county was present through the trial to hear the testimony.

* FAYETTE COUNTY CARRIED BY MASON

The State Machine Deemed Itself Lucky to Secure a Very Small Indorsement.

TURNER FOR THE LEGISLATURE.

John J. Brown, the Yates Leader, Was Solidly Sat Upon-Postmaster Bingham Was Very Much in Evidence.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Vandalia, Ill., April 3.-Payette County Republicans to-day declared for Mason for United States Senator, instructed for George T. Turner for the Legislature, expressed sorrow at the death of McKinley, favored laws against anarchy and promised loyal support to Roosevelt.

Yates was given this stingy little indorsement: "We most heartly indorse the na-tional and State administrations, and the wise statesmanship of our Senators, Shelby M. Cullom and William E. Mason," and it sounds feeble compared to this declaration for Mason: "We indorse the candidacy of William E. Mason for United States Senator, and promise to do all in our power to re-elect him to the Senate."

Mr. Turner was authorized to name his delegates to the Senatorial Convention, The convention to-day was absolutely in the control of Judge Turner and Postmaster John S. Bingham, John J. Brown, the Yates leader, opened his mouth just once, and that was to protest against a motion of Bingham, which was in the following

Mr. Brown's Resolution. "The delegates to the State Convention are hereby instructed that, should a motion or resolution be presented in State Convention instructing or indorsing any candidate for United States Senator, they are hereby instructed to cast a solid vote against it." This is in line with the anti-Yates-Hopkins programme all over the State. Thomas Zinn, ex-Representative, of Farina, made the point that it was a resolution and should go through the Committee on Resolutions. But Chairman Schenker, an adherent of the Turner-Bingham element. ruled it was a motion and regularly before the convention. At this point John Brown put his foot into the mire. He attempted

"I don't believe the delegates to the State Convention should be tied on a proposition of this kind," said he; "they ought to be free and untrammeled, and while personally I am against instructions in State Convention for Senator, I am opposed to tying the hands of our delegates. We can Convention for Senator, I am opposed to tying the hands of our delegates. We can trust them."

"I think it is a proper motion," suggested the suave Turner, "I am sure the delegates to the State Convention are in accord with it, and I believe it is in accord with it, and I believe it is in accord with the sentiment of this county. There is no harm in instructing our delegates, it is the way to let the people of the State know our views."

Mr. Zinn, on behalf of Yates and Hopkins, begged for merry.

"We came here for peace." said Mr. Zinn, whose township was solitary in a declaration of fealty to Congressman Hopkins. "But I insist you are rubbing it in too strong on us. I have nothing against Mason. He is so big that there is not enough room all the time for him on the Republican side of the Senate, and sometimes he spreads out on the Democratic side."—In sarcasm that brought yells of delight from the nine delegates from Farina.

Then he eulogized Hopkins, and this was received with some applause. Postmaster Bingham's motion carried with only a few feeble mays.

It was the only test between Brown, the Bingham's Strong Hand. In the Resolutions Committee, consisting

MR. BRYAN ON REORGANIZATION

To those of Bingham, by a vote of 15 to 3.

In the committee to select delegates to State and congressional conventions, the same ratio prevailed. The Turner-Bingham siate of seven names, typewritten and on ellips, was handed to fifteen members of the committee, and while Zinn made a galiant fight to secure one Hopkins State delegate, he was defeated—18 to 5 on the first and the committee, and while Zinn made a galiant fight to secure one Hopkins State delegate, he was defeated—18 to 5 on the first and the way below the first and the secure of the State o of one from each township, a set of resoconvention. Turner headed the delegation to select State delegates, and Postmaster Bingham was the guiding hand in the Resolutions Committee. There were 117 delegates. It is said that the concession of an indorsement of the State administration was due to a friendly feeling for Senator Coleman, as much as for John J. Brown. Coleman is a Democrat, and a Commissioner to the World's Fair by Yates appointment, and is quite popular here. So is Brown, for that matter, but the Governor is by no means a favorite.

Shelby Republicans held their convention to-day, and, while it is said they will indorse Representative Beam for re-election, it is an open secret that using Turner will be the Republican nominee in this district. He is pleiged to no candidate for Senator, has a friendly feeling for Dawes and Mason, and is strongly opposed to the attempt of Governor Yates to foist himself on the Republican party as the leader in Illinois. He is a warm personal friend of Speaker Sherman and Judge Hamilin.

G. T. Gillen of Bond was an enthusiastio witness of the proceedings.

Admiral Evans Testifies to His Worth as a Soldier.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Kansas City, Mo., April 3.—Admiral Rob-ley D. Evans passed through Kansas City this afternoon on the way to the China this afternoon on the way to the China station, where he has been assigned to a command. In the course of a conversation, Admiral Evans said of General Funston: "You can't throw down a man like Funston because of what he has done. There is no question about what General Funston has done. It was not in one battle or two battles; it was not in one emergency or two emergencies. He is not a General of the United States Army for what he said, but what he did, not on one occasion or on two occasions, but in several emergencies, and that's what Generals are for."

DUBLIN HONORS TWO NATIONALIST LEADERS

Freedom of City Conferred on John Redmond and P. A. McHugh, Members of Parliament.

McHUGH RECENTLY IMPRISONED

Irish Party Is Urged to Insist on Home Government or Let Rule by England Be Only Through Coercion.

HERALD AND THE ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC. Dublin, April 3.-(Copyright, 1902.)-A special meeting of the Dublin Corporation yesterday presented the freedom of the city to John Redmond, leader of the Nationalist party, and P. A. McHugh, member for North Leitrim, in recognition of their services to the Nationalist cause, Mr. McHugh was imprisoned for six months last year for attacking the Government administration of the jury system in Ireland.

After Mr. Redmond and Mr. McHugh had signed the Burgess roll, the Lord Mayor said that the Council decided to mark the enormous successes of the Irish party en-der Mr. Redmond's leadership and their admiration for Mr. McHugh's courage in fighting "the infamous system of jury-packing."

Mr. Redmond, in returning thanks, said that he regarded the act of the Council as an expression of fidelity to the principle of self-government and confidence in the Irish party. Referring to the local government act, he said that the most important statact, he said that the most important statute for Ireland in the past century had ended once and forever the possibility of continuing for any length of time the Goverament of Ireland simply by force. Coercion rendered absolutery certain the near approach of the restoration to Ireland of a truly national government.

He urged the maintenance of a strong Nationalist majority in the Imperial Farliament. All the County and District councils would soon be elected, and he pressed them to vote for only Nationalists there.
Thus the English would soon see two afternatives in the covernment of Ireland—either to give back her native Parliament or natives in the covernment of Federal-efficer to give back her native Parliament or to rule the country under coercion and antitary despotism. He had little doubt that England would accept the first.

The plant is situated in the town of Ber-

The Berwyn authorities telegraphed Chison. He is so big that there is not enough room all the time for him on the Republican side of the Senate, and sometimes he spreads out on the Democratic side"—in sarcasm that brought yells of delight from the nine delegates from Farina.

Then he eulogized Hopkins, and this was received with some applause. Postmaster Bingham's motion carried with only a few feeble nays.

MOON BILL EXPECTED TO BECOME A LAW.

Provides for Organization of the Territory of Jefferson Out of the Indian Territory.

MONUMENT TO WORLD'S FAIR.

Will Give People Opportunity to Correct Existing Evils and Console Them Somewhat for Failure of Statehood Plans.

The Republic Bureau, 14th St. and Fennsylvania Ave. Washington, April 3.—The efforts being made in Washington to make States of the Territories of Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona have drawn attention to the claims of the people of the Indian Territory for a territorial form of government.

While Congressmen generally admit the justice of the demands of the first three named Territories, some members question the advisability of admitting the Indian Territory to the full rights of statehood at this time. Its population is greater than that of two of the others demanding statehood, but it is not deemed wise, under existing conditions, to accord to the Indian Territory more than organization as a Ter-

Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona have passed the stage where a territorial form of government will supply the needs of their citizens. The Indian Territory has been, in a certain sense, a foreign Province, Needs of the Territory.

The committee believes that a teritorial form of government, such as this bill provides, will put in the hands of the people of the Territory now known as the Indian Territory, the machinery for correcting the evils there existing, satisfy their present needs and go far toward giving them the legislation demanded by the population and resources of the country. There exist conditions in the country that cannot be adequately and promptly met by Congress and can be responded to only by a local legislature.

Speaker Henderson's consent to have the lature.

Speaker Henderson's consent to have the three Statehood bills voted upon in the House has encouraged the people of Arizona. New Mexico and Oklahoma to hope for final legislation at this Congress. There is little prospect that the Senate will pass either of these bills if the House should do so. It is believed that Speaker Henderson would have opposed consideration in the House but for the almost certain defeat of the bills by the Senate.

and Pendleton Avenues.

A hospital, medical college and training school for nurses will be erected at a cost of $100,000 at the southwest corner of Finney and Pendleton avenues, running through to Fairfax avenue. The transfer of the lot, 200 feet on Finney, 132 on Pendieton and 200 feet on Fairfax avenue, was made yesterday, Miss Clara Fox selling to the John King Hospital Association for $20,000.

The purchasers are principally physicians identified with the American Medical College. Jefferson avenue and Adams street, whose property will be sold and the college moved to the new site. Doctor M. M. Hamlin is president of the association, Doctor A. F. Stephens secretary and Doctor E. Lee Standlee treasurer. Two buildings, connected in L shape, will be erected at once, one for the new college and nurse's school and the other for the hospital. Both will be four stories of the hest modern style of architecture. The hos-pital will contain two wards, with 100 rooms, facing upon Finney avenue, 50x100 feet, while the college structure, 40x100 feet, another entrance on Fairfax avenue.

Only a few weeks ago the Lincoin Trust Company, for Henrietta Brawner, sold this lot to Miss Clara Fox for $16,000. It was the intention of Miss Fox, whose home is in Cincinnati, to erect apartment-houses, on account of the location, with surrounding lawn and shade trees, the American Medical College officials decided they must have the place, so the sale for $20,000 from Miss Fox to the association was closed
